

Garlic Production for the Home Gardener

Tuesday, October 12th, 6:00pm

Garlic is a relatively easy crop to grow, and fall is an ideal time to plant garlic. The program will cover the various types of garlic that can be grown in Ohio. Proper planting, harvesting and storage techniques will also be covered. The program will end with a tasting of 7 different varieties of garlic.

Please RSVP by October 11th due to limited seating
