The Buckeye Lake Historical Society Museum is pleased to host Judge Luann Cooperrider on April 8th, 2022 as she opens the files of the infamous .22-Caliber Killers case.

Central Ohio was terrorized in 1977 and 1978 as two brothers, Gary and Thaddeus Lewingdon... "the .22-caliber killers".... robbed and shot to death 10 people across three counties.

In a recorded statement to police after his arrest, Gary Lewingdon stated, he would change nothing about his actions and would do it all over again under similar circumstances.

Judge Luann Cooperrider was born and raised in Perry County, Ohio and began her legal career in private practice in Thornville in 1983 and continued there until 1991. In 1986, she became the first female lawyer to be an assistant prosecutor in Perry County and continued at that position until 1990. On February 12, 1991, she took office as the Perry County Probate—Juvenile judge, the first female judge in Perry County.
