

Perry County Job and Family Services

Title XX Public Hearing

March 23, 2021

Contact: Tammy Goniea, 342-3556

The Perry County Department of Job and Family Services is opening the Title XX Public Hearing in Preparation of the Title XX Comprehensive Social Services Plan for Perry County for the Federal Fiscal year, October 1, 2021 through September 30, 2022 and October 1, 2022 through September 30, 2023.

This hearing will begin at 2 p.m. on April 28th in person at the Perry County Department of Job and Family Services Hocking location (5454 State Route 37 in New Lexington). If you would prefer to participate virtually in the public meeting, please email Tamara Goniea at tamara.goniae@jfs.ohio.gov.

Title XX of the Social Security Act provides funding to counties for local social services programs for families, children and adults. These funds are distributed by the state, but the county JFS determines what services will be available in the community.

Comments or testimony provided during the public hearing will be recorded and limited to 5 minutes per person or organization.
